On Mind, Spirit, Madness, Peace and Aliens

Does the mind serve and support the spirit.

Or is the spirit kidnapped by the mind field and drawn into all the distractions.

Original identity imprisoned by the mind. The subtle penetrates through the field to vibrate the inner Naad.

Time to deal with the mind, the collective mind field and your personal mind.

Your mind must come to support your original identity. Your divine self, your forgotten self.

What is the language of your mind. What does it say, to you, to the world.
Does your mind represent your spirit well. Or does it cover and hide the spirit. For its own recognition.

The mind is the false king. Claiming to be ruler, claiming to be all powerful.
The 9 will sabotage the ego. Bring it down from its pedestal.
The ego-mind will try to build up great defences. The lies will get stronger.
The wall of falsehood will have many layers. The imprisoned soul will be crying out from inside this prison.
The mind will continue to create a fortress, a firewall, with the illusion of impenetrability.
The mystery is yet more subtle and can enter in the smallest spaces. There is nothing can block the 9.
The king of ego-mind, secretly, inherently, knows its limitations and fears the day it will be conquered.
It has already contributed to its own downfall. It's systems contains the self-destruct mechanism.
Our protection has become our prison.
The mind has put a chain round its own neck, and the soul is also suffocating with it.
The king will be captured. The king will be subdued. The king will come its knees and be made to serve.
the king will recognise, accept and agree to permit and support the voice of the soul
So it may resonate with the vibration of the infinite spirit.

The struggle of ideologies, (medical, political, social, cultural, religious, military, territorial), becomes ever more evident and transparent. A war for the minds, and therefore the hearts and therefore the very lives, of the people. This is a state of escalation of the argumentative state. It is not serving the elevation of consciousness.

Madness is a given. It is just a question of the type.
Madness can be irrational or simply non-rational.
Both may be disturbing in different ways.
Disrupting the routine familiarity of our routine rational life and way of seeing and thinking.
The irrational is merely destructive without any creative outcome.
The non-rational invites us to think outside the box and introduces novelty and innovation.
The non-rational madness is guided by the invisible principles of intelligence that actually sustains all life.

(There would be no world without numbers)

Madness of impatience and intolerance or the madness of tolerance and patience.
Madness of perfectionism or the madness of all being perfectly imperfect.
Madness as a tyranny or the madness of peace, calmness, tranquillity.
A restless madness or the madness of rest.
Madness of the man-made magic [lies, tricks and manipulation]
Or the madness of the magical mystery that has created the creation.

Peace talks, 5. Peace agreements 7, peace events 9.
Yet peace may remain elusive, vague, ambiguous.
Peace wants to enter, infiltrate, reach us. like a fragrance.
Still a minor detail can sabotage all efforts and agreement.
Peace sends it messengers and messages.
We often kill, cancel, the messenger before fully receiving the message.

The flag for peace may be old, worn out, outdated.
But peace itself remains resilient and persistent.
Peace endures all our attempts to sabotage it.
There is no success in waiting or hoping, or even praying, for peace. Peace waits for you.
Peace tolerates all our wars and conflicts, all our restlessness and agitation. Peace perseveres.
Peace can impose itself overnight.
Like a heavy winter storm covers the world with a blanket of white.
Like a nuclear fallout or great volcanic eruption, covering the earth with its white ash.

9 is alien, strange, mysterious, mystery, magic.
Alien becomes the monster, the scapegoat, an excuse for further control measures.
It may be an alien disease, alien gene. alien Immigrant, alien Terrorist, alien visitor from another planet.
Our relation to the alien may be fear, fascination, denial,

Ultimately you might realise that you are the alien. You are the stranger, you are the spirit.
Here to experience the human life of love and tragedy.
Here to build the inner resilience of our true being.

TO TOLERATE PEACE WE ALSO HAVE TO LEARN TO TOLERATE WAR.

I AM CALLING IN THE PEACE
I AM CALLING IN THE PEACE
